

U.S. Treasury Hearing

Laurie Maggiano

Policy Director, U.S. Treasury Dept.
Homeownership Preservation Office

June 24, 2010

7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church
2040 Nassau, San José CA 95122

Spanish & Vietnamese Translation Provided.

The U.S. Treasury Department is responsible for implementing President Obama's Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) that promised to help 3-4 million homeowners avoid foreclosure. Fewer than 10% have received permanent loan modifications.

Join us to report on How banks are doing in California

Change is needed to get banks to modify loans to:

- Stop preventable foreclosures
- Keep families in their homes
- Protect neighborhoods and rebuild the economy

Please check our web site for updates and agenda: www.PACTsj.org

For more event information in English or Spanish or to request special accommodations, please contact Jenne Wood-Taylor jenniferwood-taylor@pactsj.org or 408-835-6708 or Gina Gates, 408-835-3000